

UTA Edenred strengthens its Spanish acceptance network with the addition of Beroil fuel stations

- 37 Beroil stations in Northern Spain can now be accessed by UTA Edenred customers
- In total, UTA's acceptance network in the country features over 5,570 fuel stations

Kleinostheim, Germany – UTA Edenred, a leading mobility service provider in Europe and an Edenred company, has expanded its presence in Northern Spain, and particularly in Castilla y León, through an agreement with Beroil that sees 37 of the company's fuel stations added to the UTA acceptance network. In total, UTA customers can now access more than 5,570 multi-brand and multi-product fuel stations across the Iberian Peninsula.

Beroil specialises in services aimed at heavy duty vehicles as well as in the provision of diesel fuels, including variants such as Diesel A and Diesel A Additive 10, and AdBlue. The energy company is widely regarded for its focus on innovation and commitment to the environment through its own biodiesel processing plant.

Lukas Schneider, Commercial Director EMEA at UTA Edenred, says: "The systematic addition of strong partners to our European acceptance network is one of the reasons we're seen as a leader in mobility services. The agreement with Beroil gives us a firmer foothold in the critical Spanish market and means we can now serve customers in the country even more effectively."

Alfonso Díaz, Country Manager of UTA Edenred Spain and Portugal, says: "We're dedicated to supporting the day-to-day mobility requirements of our customers in Spain, and the collaboration with Beroil significantly extends our coverage in the north of the country."

Rodrigo Huidobro, owner of Beroil, says: "We're pleased to partner with a strong international brand like UTA Edenred that shares our service commitment to transportation companies. We look forward to welcoming UTA Edenred customers to our stations and providing them with personalised, high-quality products and services."
